How to paste into Google Docs

Open the companion file docs/MIMS-Role-Day-Rates-Producer-Review.txt — copy the tab-separated table into Google Sheets, then copy from Sheets into Google Docs for an editable table.

What the numbers mean

- Base (expert) = 10+ years, non-union anchor before rush, usage, or client multipliers.
- LA/NYC = base × 1.25 (location multiplier in the app).
- Experience columns = how MIMS scales base: 0–1 (60%), 1–3 (70%), 3–5 (80%), 5–10 (90%), 10+ (100%).
- Rush adds up to +50% loading; paid digital usage +25%; broadcast +50% (capped combined).
- Flat-rate roles (storyboard, writer, motion, etc.) use project fee logic instead of shoot days.
